

CODES AAC Activity of the Week

Come out, come out Wherever you are!

This activity will help your child begin to initiate language.

- ★ Get out 5 or 6 different puppets and a box, table or sofa to hide behind
- ★ The parent hides behind the table, box or sofa and waits for child to shout the name of the puppet and the phrase “come out, come out wherever you are!”
- ★ Now move the appropriate puppet so the child can see it.
- ★ You can also do this with different people in the house. a great way to get the whole family involved.

Symbols and vocabulary you will need: names of puppets, and the phrase “come out, come out, wherever you are!”
